District Level Enrollment 2022-2023

ENROLLMENT 2022

Overall Trends

Enrollment Trends 2012-2022

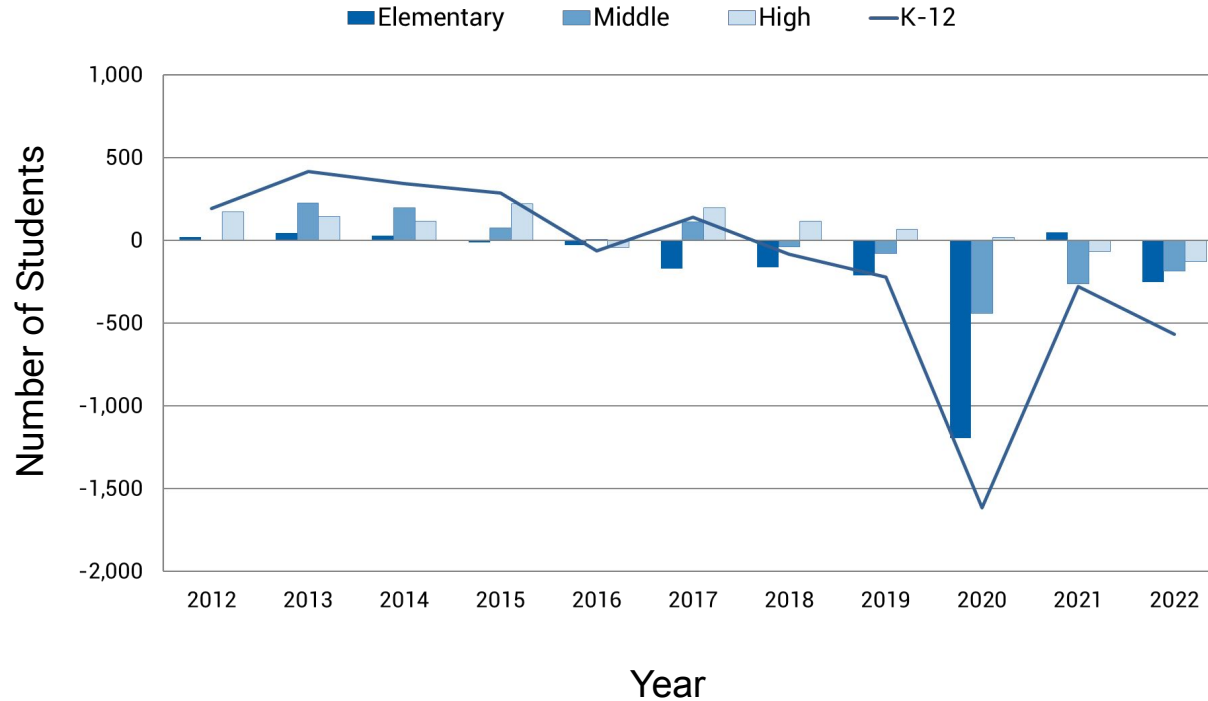

Take aways

- Lingering COVID-19 impacts and uncertainty
- Losses concentrated in elementary in 2022

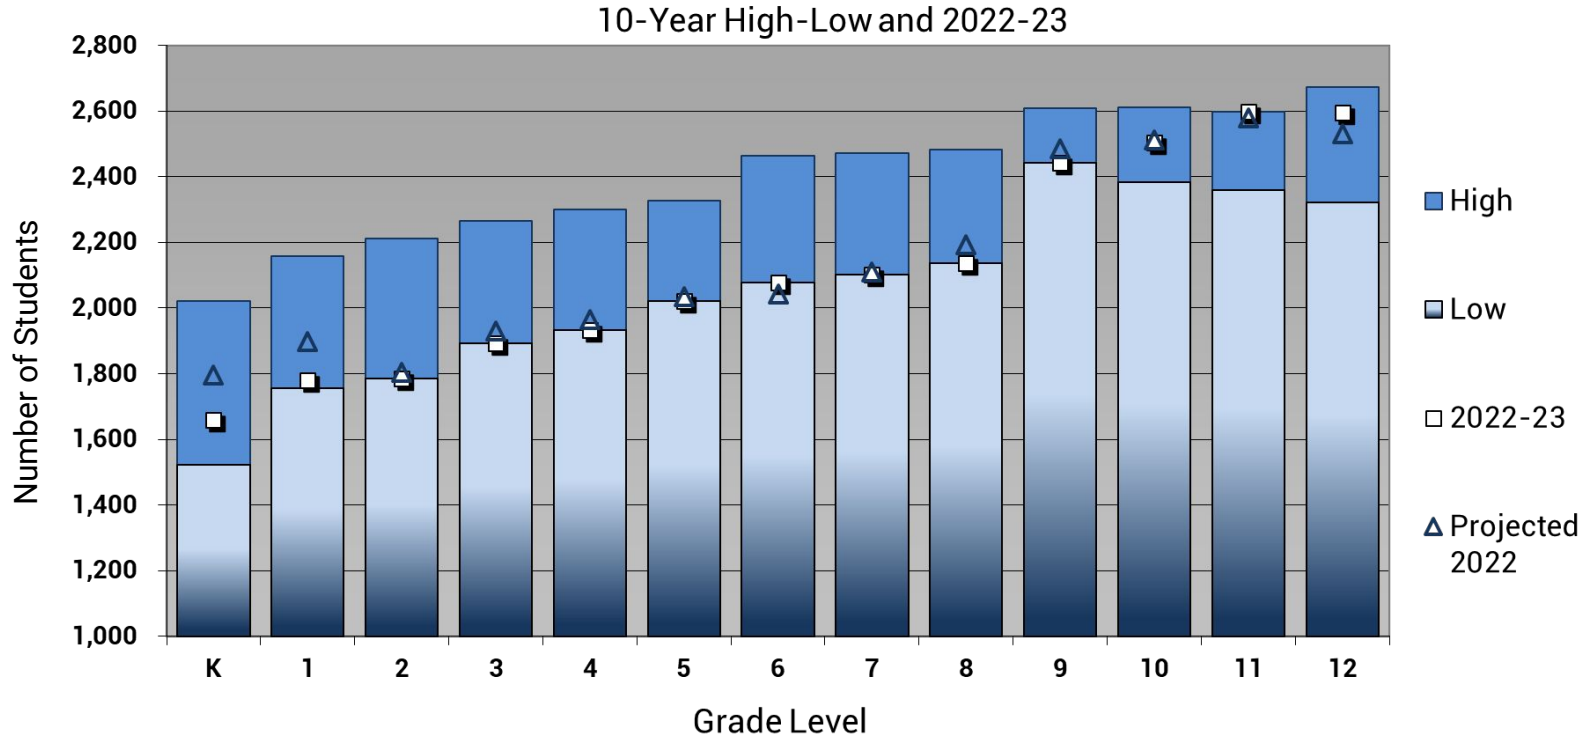

Annual Enrollment Change by Grade Level

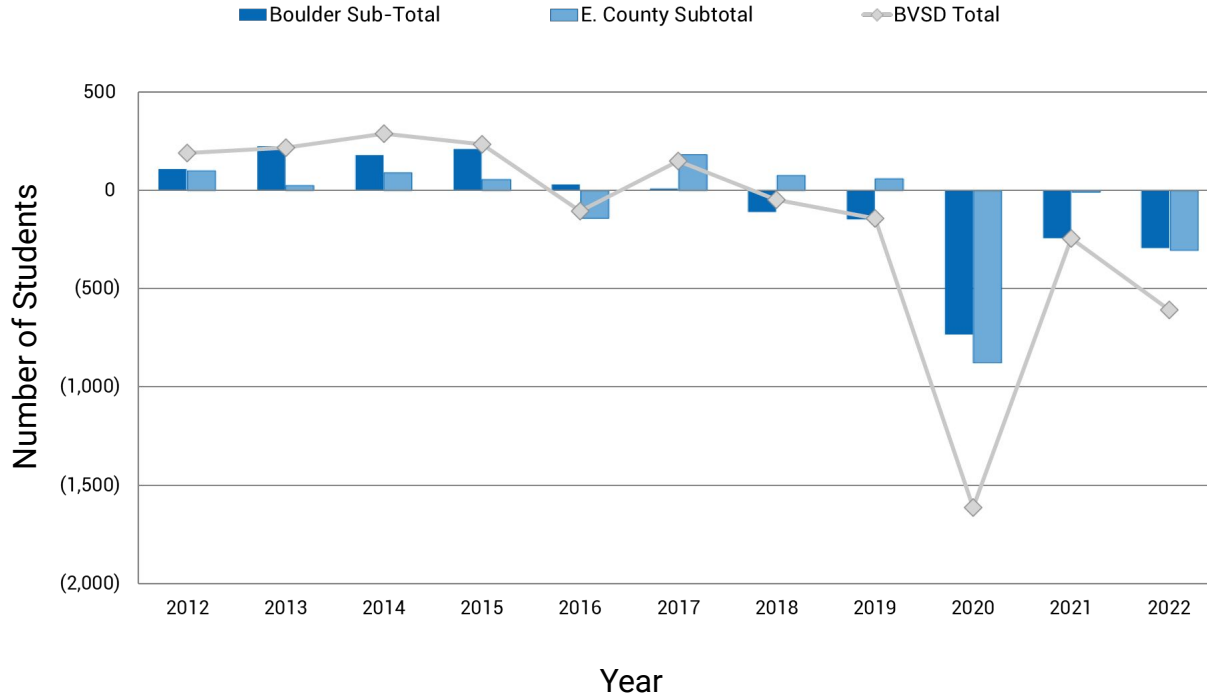

- 2022 losses at all three levels for the first time in 15+ years.
- Half of total losses concentrated at elementary (especially K and 1st).

BVSD Grade Distribution

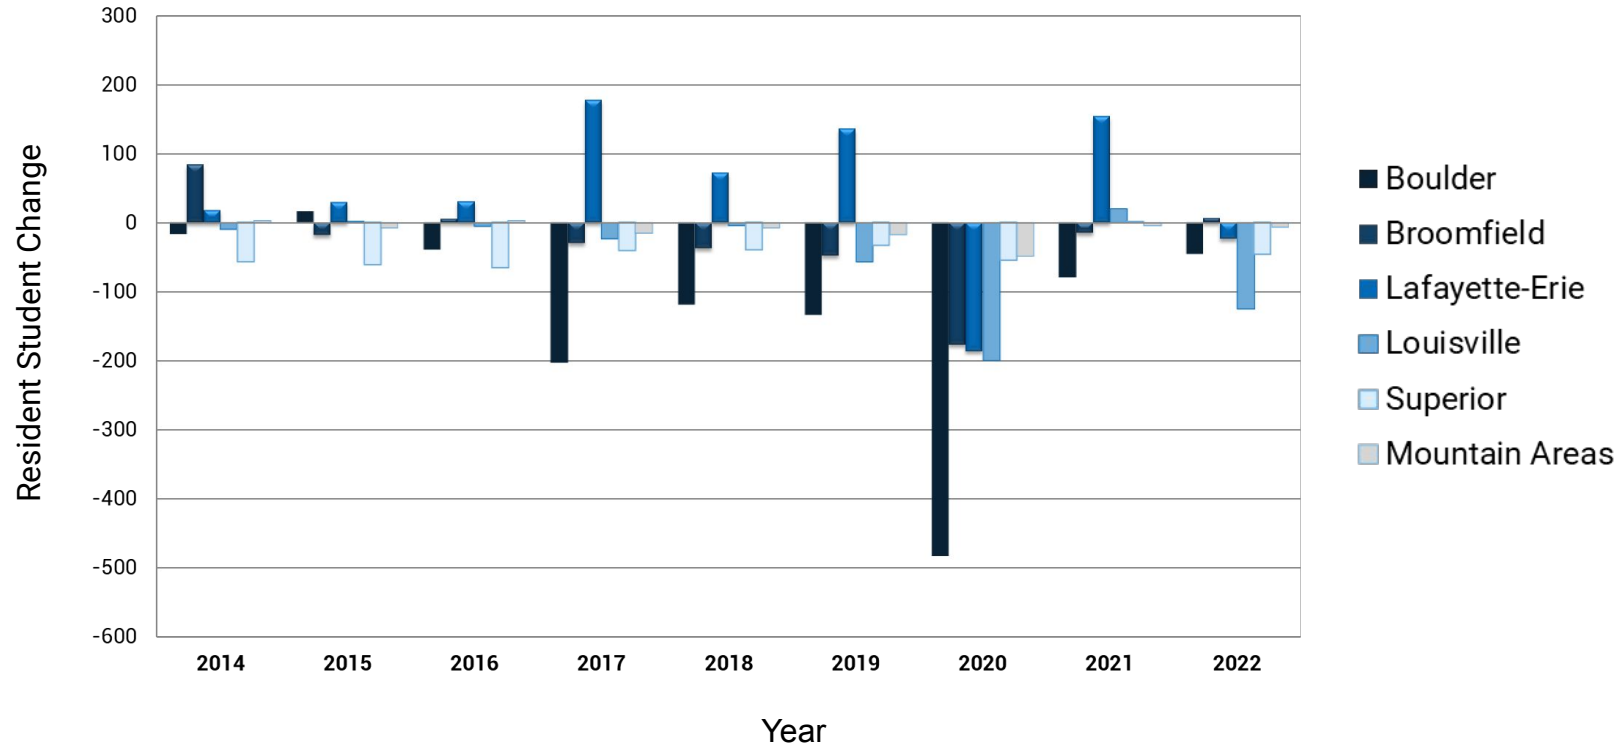

Regional Resident K-12 Student Change

- Boulder continues to drive BVSD's losses.
- Eastern BVSD also showed significant decline in 2022.

Resident Elementary Student Change by Community

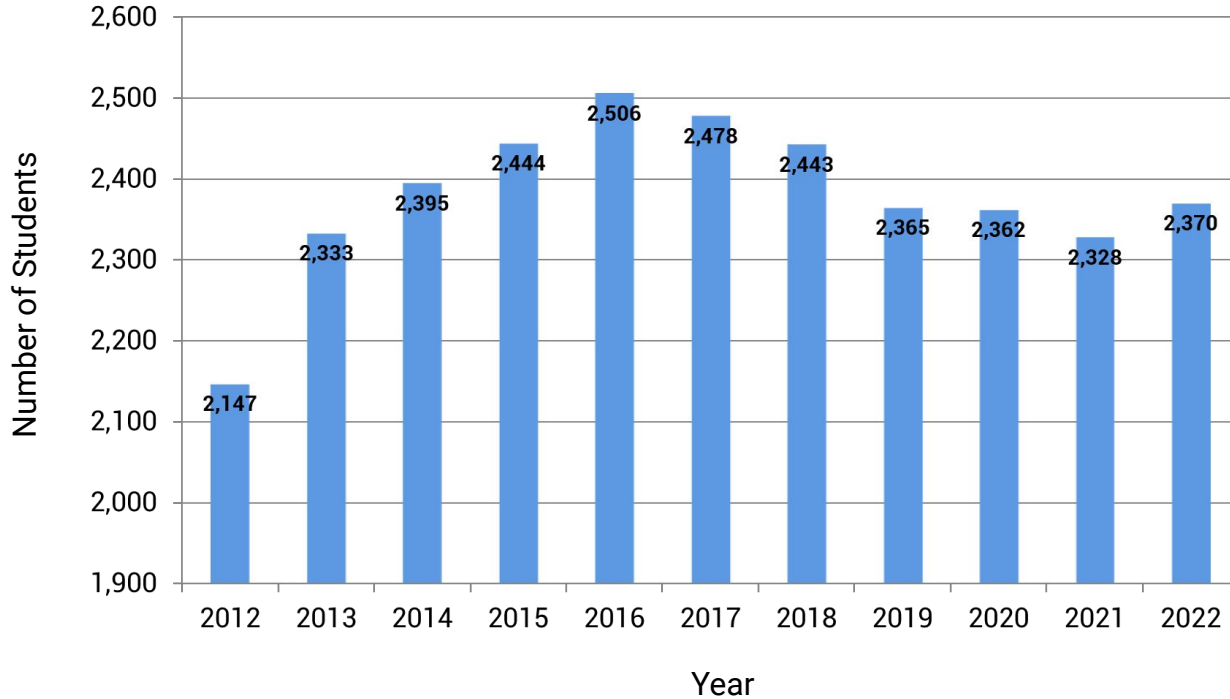

ENROLLMENT 2022

Migration, Out-of-District, & Births

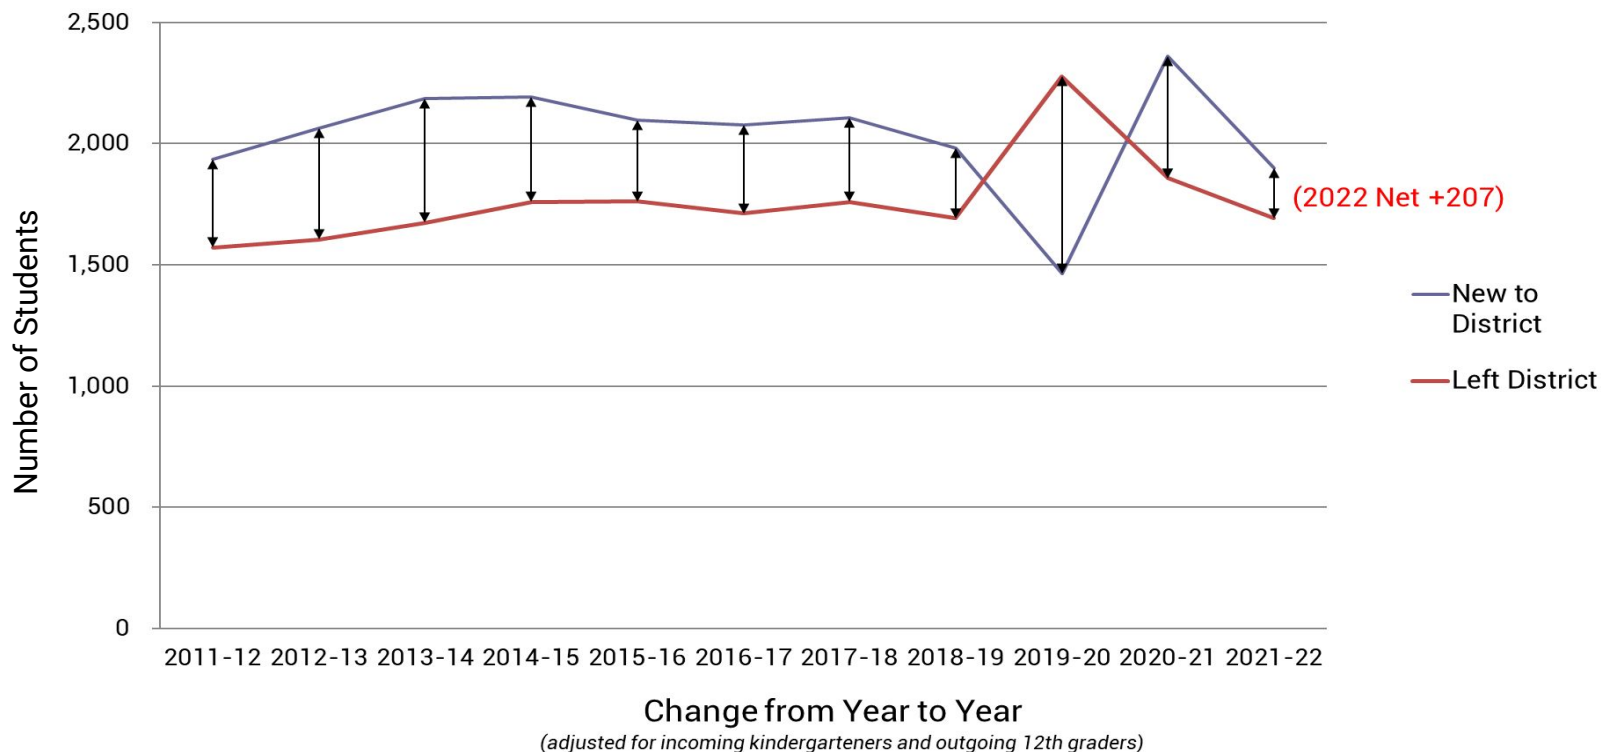

Out-of-District Enrollment

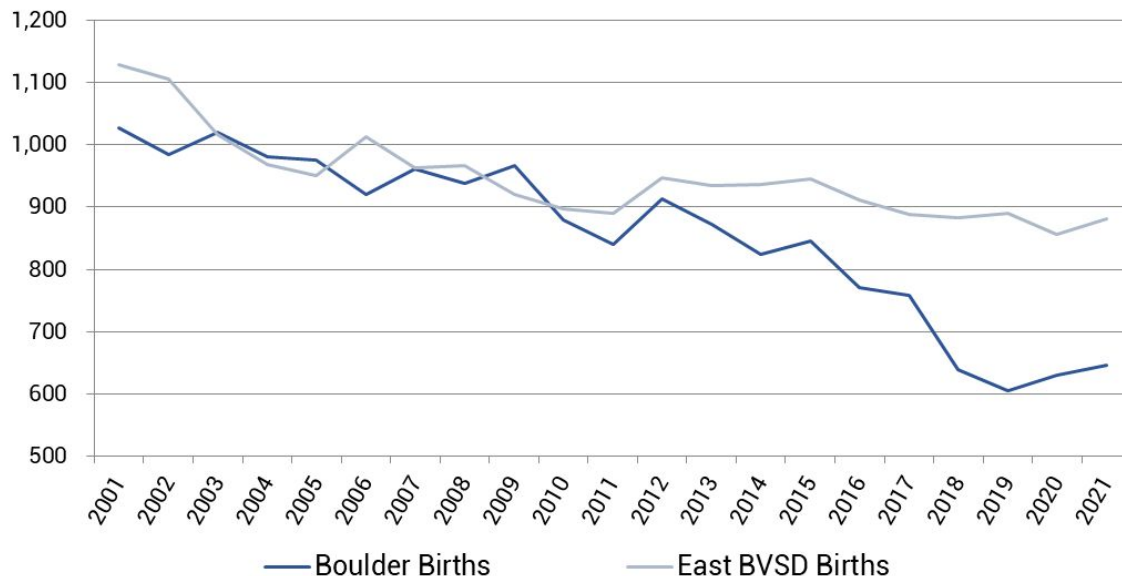

- Below 2016 peak but level in recent years
- Partly explained by limited capacity at high schools

New and Leaving Resident Students 2011-2022

Birth Trends 2001 to 2021

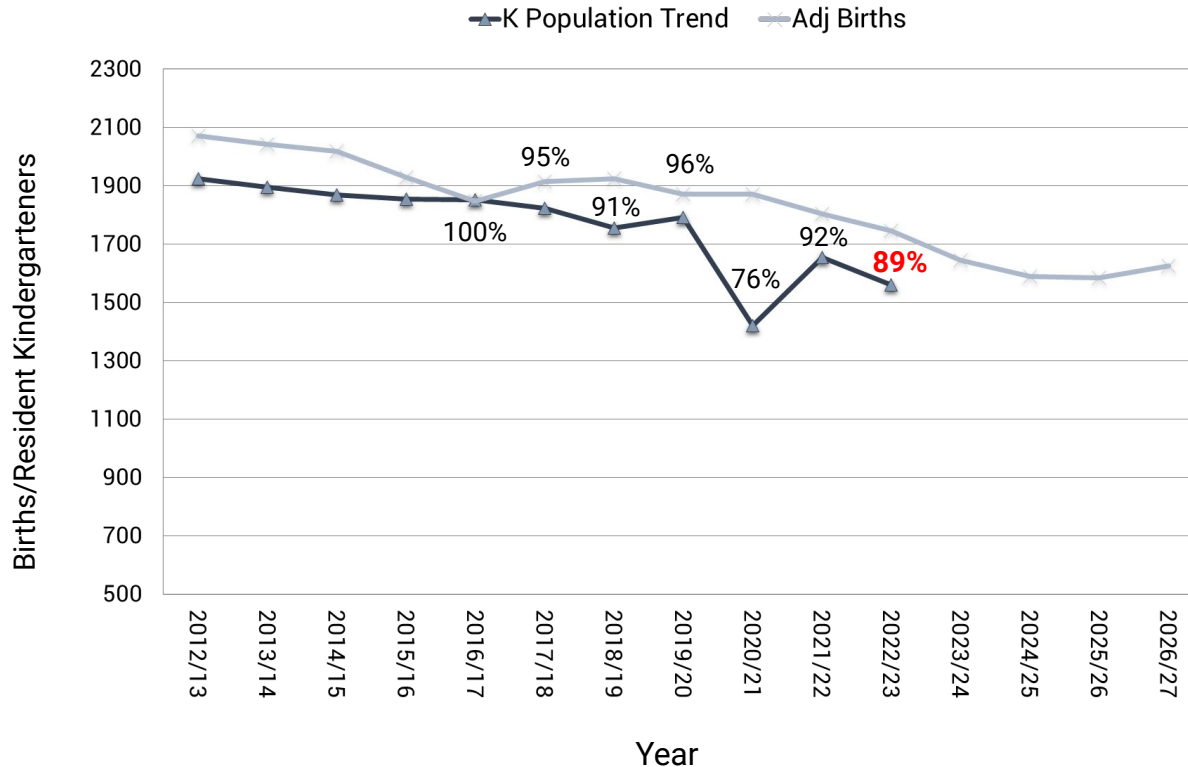

Takeaways

- Births in decline since 1999
- Boulder decline steepens in 2012 while eastern BVSD mostly levels
- Boulder in second year of gains

Birth by Age of Mother (%)	15-19	20-24	25-29	30-34	35-39	40-44	45+
Boulder 2020	2%	8%	14%	36%	30%	11%	1%
East BVSD 2020	2%	7%	18%	39%	29%	4%	1%

Adjusted Births and Resident K Trends

- Weaker link (%) between births and Kindergarten in 2022
- Explanations include greater preference for other programs and/or low net migration

Enrollment 2022

Summary

Summary

- Greater than expected enrollment decline (-565/-2%) over last year.
- Losses concentrated in Kindergarten and 1st grade.
- Elementary, middle, and high school levels all saw declines in 2022.
- Boulder, Louisville, and Superior schools largely driving declines, but typical offset from new housing growth in Lafayette and Erie not seen in 2022.
- Out of Districts contributions to enrollment down from 2016 peak, but stable since 2019.
- Future enrollment levels largely determined by birth rates and net migration. Signs of faltering net migration in 2022.
